

To prospective clients of Gift Haven

If you are looking for a gift idea for those special occasions – I have no hesitation in recommending Renee of Gift Haven to design and personalise a gift hamper for birthdays, anniversaries etc.

I have been purchasing the gift hampers for some time for my Vendors and Purchasers on their settlement days. This just finishes the final touches of a successful sale and both parties appreciate the excellent presentation and quality of product in the hampers.

Renee, the proprietor is always friendly and co-operative to what I require and full of good suggestions. It is important to support our local small businesses too therefore I have no hesitation in recommending hampers from Gift Haven as a great gift.

Yours sincerely
